ALL SORTS.

—The Commissioners met yesterday.

—Lung Protectors at Thaxter's Drug Store.

—Hy Doane is still confined to his house. McCabe is acting for him.

—Hem-stitched Silk Handkerchief's, twenty-five cents a piece, at Olcovich Bros.

—There were four aces, four kings and four queens in a poker game in this city last week. Curious how they run.

—Senator Stewart's bill for the restriction of Chinese immigration is the most sensible measure that yet been proposed.—S. F. Alta.

—The electric motors for the new electric light company arrived yesterday. A light placed on the ball of the flagstaff on the dome of capitol would be an excellent idea.

—Passenger train No. 2, westward bound collided with a freight train on the C. P. at Gold Run yesterday. Two men were killed. Harry Rice, the engineer was uninjured. Train dispatcher to blame.

—Croup, whooping cough, sore throat, sudden cold, and the lung troubles peculiar to children, are easily controlled by promptly administering Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. This remedy is safe to take, and certain in its action.

—"It is worth its weight in gold," is a common expression. But, while the value of gold is easily affected, the worth of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, as a blood purifier, never depreciates. It will eradicate scrofula from the system when everything else fails.

—Mrs. Langtry's big fence in New York has been torn down by order of the Police Inspector and carted off, having been declared a sidewalk obstruction. Mr. Note-ware has sent for it to put around the land he recently sold the lady near the Tahoe flume.

—It cost Bob Morrow nearly half a million to pay for the consequences of bribing the jury in the Geary street case. Now if the authorities indite him for bribing the Santa Rosa jury, it will cost him as much more. He has to bribe every jury that tries him and when his sack runs out conviction is certain.

A Free Trade Fallacy.

The "cheap clothing" argument has come to nothing in the hands of the free traders. They have discovered that clothing is not so very dear, after all, in the United States. The finer grades of cloth are high in this country compared with what they are in England. A $50 suit here could be bought for $25 in London. But working men are not wearing $50 suits, and would not if they could. The cheaper grades of woollens are as cheap in America as in England itself. "Home competition," says the New York Press, "has enabled us to manufacture wearable and respectable suits of clothing as low as $3½ and good all-wool worsted suits from $7½ to $10." No better suit than the former could be got in London for fourteen shillings, and the 30s. or the £2 English suit would not show any advantage beside the $7½ or the $10 suit of New York or San Francisco.

The free trade journals in this city who have howled about the "ninety per cent. tax on the laborer's clothing," can turn to their advertising columns and find "all-wool worsted suits" offered for $7.50, and blankets from $1 and $1.50 up. They could not be imported duty free for less. But free trade could succeed in cutting the laborer's wages in half without any difficulty at all.

Olcovich Brothers.

The well-known dealers in General Merchandise, call the attention of the public to the following facts: They have on hand a large and well-selected stock of Shoes. These they offer at a sacrifice to make room for Groceries and Provisions. Everybody is invited to call and inspect before purchasing elsewhere.

Valuable Horse Killed.

Yesterday morning a horse belonging to Raycraft Bros. was found dead in his stall. In the night he had kicked his hind legs so high that he became impaled on the post at the end of the stall. He was valued at $500.

Will There Be a War this Year.

The present year is the fifth year of modern times in which the aggregate of the figures in twenty-five, and there will be but five more years in which such a combination is possible prior to the year of 2599. Probably few have ever heard of the old prophecy, which reads as follows:

In every future year of our Lord, When the sum of the figures is twenty-five,

Some warlike kingdom will draw the sword, But peaceful nations in piece shall thrive.

Students of modern history will readily recall how faithfully this prophecy has been fulfilled in the four previous years to which it applied.

In 1699 Russia, Denmark and Poland formed the coalition against Sweden which inaugurated the great war that ended in the disastrous defeat of Charles XII at Pultowa.

The year 1789 will ever be memorable on account of the breaking out of the French Revolution.

The year 1798 witnessed the campaign of Bonaparte in Egypt and the second European coalition against France.

1879 war broke out between England and Afghanistan, followed by the invasion of the latter country by British troops.

In what manner the prediction is to be verified in 1888 remains yet to be seen, but the present condition of Europe seems to promise an abundant fulfillment of the prophecy.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

The Eureka Tar Bucket.

Several papers in the State have enquired why the Sentinel does not keep on denouncing the tar bucket fiends of Eureka. The Sentinel replies:

In answer, we have only to say that the Sentinel did its duty in denouncing the Paroni outrage in fitting terms. The duty of bringing the perpetrators of the outrage to justice belongs to the officers of the law. We are informed that the officers are collecting all of the evidence possible; in other words, "working up the case," in order to prosecute the guilty parties. This is the course usually pursued in Virginia, Austin and elsewhere, we believe. We therefore beg our brethren of the Reveille and Enterprise to possess their souls in patience for a time and await results.

An Impostor.

Yesterday a lady called on Dr. S. Harmon at the Ormsby House, and asked to have a pair of eye glasses exchanged. He decided that he had not sold them, when the lady said:

"You are not the man who called at my house, but the man who sold me these glasses said his name was Dr. Harmon, and that his rooms were in the Ormsby House."

The glasses were of the common flint variety, worth about 75 cents. Dr. Harmon is now taking steps to have the impostor ferreted out and arrested.

He wishes it understood that he does not peddle glasses at all about town, and anyone claiming to represent him is a fraud.

The Comstock.

Speculation in Comstock shares is not as alluring as in former days. The fluctuations have not been great for some time past. The stock operating public, however, doesn't care a fig for merit if the stock market will only move. People who deal in stocks want them to go up and down. They are satisfied to take their chances if the big manipulators will only make deals. They are willing that the said manipulators may look at both hands. They never stop to think that the business of the big San Francisco manipulator is but a few removes above that of the professional pickpocket. There was a time when there were two parties in the field and two sides to the market—the long and the short. But that day has past. The market has been what the Bonanza crowd desired it to be since the death of Sharon. There has been no one of late to dispute their supremacy. They have things all their own way. Mackay had his collar-bone cracked in the wheat deal. Jim Fair is at the helm. Fair has no game in him as an operator. He is not a thoroughbred in anything that means chances. It is his policy to draw in the money of the public in the pretty, slow, but sure way. The brilliant deeds of Ralston and Sharon need never be looked for under present conditions. And yet the Comstock as a whole is looking quite as well, even better, than at any time in the last twelve months. Con. Virginia, Savage, Hale & Norcross, Potosi and Crown Point and Belcher are all producing good ore in vast quantities. There is ample merit for a lively stock market at greatly improved prices. But people are beginning to despair of its coming. It is now the general belief that there may be one more little spurt and then the whole business settle down in a milling proposition, without elasticity and without speculation. Those who hold stocks will be privileged to pay assessments for many years to come.—Eureka Sentinel.

Syrup of Figs

Is Nature's true laxative. It is the most easily taken, and the most effective remedy known to cleanse the System when Bilious or Costive; to dispel Headaches, Colds, and Fevers; to Cure Habitual Constipation, Indigestion, Piles, etc. Manufactured only by the California Fig Syrup Company, San Francisco, Cal. For sale by George C. Thaxter, agent Carson.

Cure for Cross Wives.

Said a Carson husband yesterday, "My wife is so cross that I do believe she contemplates a divorce." "Let her purchase her groceries of Leslie Bell and she will be the pleasantest woman in the State," was the reply, and the man started to get some of those elegant hams.
